NUTRITION MADE SIMPLE. LIFE MADE RICH

hello.

Here we are already two months into 2018 with four Reliv Europe Kick-Off events behind us and the momentum for a successful year is fully underway.

Firstly, I want to thank every one of you who attended the “Kick-Off” events and the tremendous atmosphere you created. I also have to congratulate every Distributor that presented workshops – they were top class in content and delivery. It’s been a great start to 2018.

You now know the travel and bonus incentive programme for the year ahead and I have to say that the feedback and reaction we have had has been of excitement and a belief that there is something for everyone to achieve. We have the opportunities of travelling together to Sicily, Scandinavia and Dubai and I think that there will be some of you who could win all 3 trips. First stop: Sicily and what a Reliv Europe get together that will be. See you there!

Then we have the Millionaires’ Weekend, which has now been extended to include 2 nights at the luxury Hoar Cross Hall Spa Hotel in the heart of England. We also have the Champion of Champions Award and Sharing in Success promotion to reward you with big cash bonuses. And there is much more to strive for!

I believe that through your energy and commitment we are on the edge of doing something exceptional in 2018. We have the finest group of Distributors in the Reliv world as far as I am concerned and you have the greatest leadership with our Ambassador and Presidential Director team which we are hoping to expand. We will all experience challenges but I really do believe with all my heart that we have a group of Distributors who are capable of overcoming any challenge and that we will set new and higher standards that have never been seen before in the Reliv world. I really do believe that! Now is the time to believe in yourself.

Let’s all work together, upline, downline, corporate, woman, man, everyone – let’s work towards our individual and group goals. Let’s all encourage each other so that we make an even bigger difference to more people.

I’m really looking forward to what we will achieve in 2018. I’ve said it before and I’ll say it again – you are the best group of Distributors, in the 38 years that I’ve been in the industry, that I have been privileged enough to work with. BUT none of us, including myself, have reached our full Reliv potential. 2018 is our time to start fulfilling that huge potential starting right now...see you in Sicily!

Ciao!

Proud to be your Chairman,

Eric

LIVING THE MILLIONAIRE DREAM WITH RELIV

At Reliv Europe, we like to treat our Distributors to the most exclusive and luxurious experiences and reward them for their hard work. And nothing says exclusivity and luxury like a Millionaires' Weekend at the Hoar Cross Hall Spa Hotel. Here are some pictures and feedback from those who earned this fabulous trip!

We were treated in such a special way for the whole weekend. Everything was paid for, and we even got to enjoy the spa without a time limit! The other Distributors on the trip were fun to be with and I'm so glad we had time to get to know them. My husband and I spent some quality time together and felt richly rewarded.

Elisabeth & Matthew Martin

What we love about Reliv trips are the extraordinary memories you make there. You are invited to places you have never been to and experience things you would never experience on your own. For example, who would think to order a limousine to pick them up from the airport or reserve a hotel room that seemed more like a little apartment and had a whirlpool in the bathroom? Reliv does all of that and much more for you and makes you feel really special! On this trip we enjoyed the beautiful grounds, luxurious ambience and great company with positive Reliv people. Thank you for the outstanding memories!

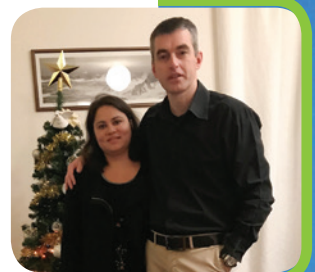

Nadja & Andreas Reinold

What a wonderful time we had at the Millionaires' Weekend! Reliv is a generous company that rewards people who build their businesses. I appreciated the spa and luxurious surroundings. What I loved even more were the strengthened relationships with other Distributors! The session with the dream boards showed me that it is worth dreaming because we saw dreams had come true for many of the Distributors on the trip. It also helped me to expand my belief in my own potential, fuelled my passion to help others and enabled me to count the blessings we already have thanks to the business we've built so far!

Shelby & Dan Hill

We were very surprised to have earned the Millionaires' Weekend at Hoar Cross Hall. We used to be told by our upline that it would happen to us one day but we really didn't think that it would actually happen! At last, we were going to be able to relax and enjoy some downtime with other Reliv Distributors! The key word for the trip was 'ENJOY' and that is what we did. We really made the most of the luxurious surroundings, spa and spending quality time with other Reliv Distributors and Ambassadors. You should never give up with Reliv, anybody can achieve their goals like we did. Thank you again for everything!

LET YOUR EXCITEMENT TAKE OVER AND PLAN SUCCESSFUL SPECIAL EVENTS!

By Presidential Bronze Ambassadors Andreas & Nadja Reinold

Every week we organise events in our Reliv foundation cities that help people to change their lives. These events are worth far more than brochures or advertising because they show real examples. So what do we have to think about when planning special events?

Firstly, why are special events so effective?

- They give us the opportunity to approach new people.
- You can invite guests who already know about Reliv but were not ready to incorporate it into their daily lives.
- People can share their Reliv stories and experiences.
- You can encourage Distributors who in the past only covered their personal consumption of the Reliv products to now take a look at the Reliv business opportunity.

What should I consider when planning?

WHERE? It's best to plan special events in existing Reliv cities where all Distributors in the area can invite prospects. If there aren't any meetings in your area and you really have a passion for Reliv, organising a special event could be the starting point.

Remember: If you choose a location, it should not be too big. It is better to fill a smaller room than end up with a large room that is half empty.

WHEN? Choose a time that suits most of your local Distributors and a time that allows as many guests as possible to attend.

WHO? Invite experienced Distributors as special guests who can share their wealth of experience with Reliv – this way you can inspire Distributors and new prospects alike.

Inform all Distributors in time about an upcoming event. If there are special guests attending a particular event, announce these guests or any special features in advance. This means that everyone knows exactly what to expect and people can invite others to come along to the event. You could also prepare written invitations which give an overview of the exciting programme.

TIP: Organise 3-way-calls and conference calls to make customers and Distributors interested about upcoming special events.

LET YOUR TEAM BE A PART OF IT!

Special events are not just for newcomers, they are also a wonderful opportunity to work as a team with your existing group. Ask Distributors to help with organising the experience and include sections of the event for different individuals to get involved in. This will allow as many Distributors as possible to participate. Everyone has their own personal strengths – find opportunities where everyone can show what they are capable of and help people to grow. This will ensure that each of your special events will turn into unforgettable experiences! Well-planned special events inspire and ignite the passion that burns in you and in other people too!

13 & 14 OCTOBER, 2017

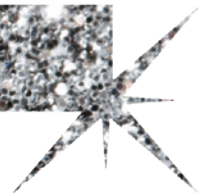

NEWPORT BAY CLUB HOTEL, DISNEYLAND PARIS

It was incredible to have Presidential Four-Time Platinum Ambassadors Joe & Carol Felger join us from America. We love having Distributors come to our Conference from all over the world!

We had some of the best workshops and speakers we have ever had presenting at our 2017 Conference. There is nothing more valuable to your business than the information and knowledge that you take away with you from a Reliv Europe Conference.

MEMORIES

We had a fantastic time at the Reliv Europe 2017 Shine Conference. Here's some of our favourite memories from the weekend!

Our end of Conference parties have become famous around the Reliv world! It's the perfect way to end such a special weekend and gives everyone the chance to network and have fun!

A man with short grey hair, wearing a black button-down shirt and black pants, stands in a studio. He is smiling and looking towards the camera. The studio is lit with professional equipment, including a boom microphone hanging from the ceiling, a large circular softbox light to the right, and a large black light panel in the foreground. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

Now more than ever is the best time to be a Reliv Distributor. Firstly, let me say that I've been a Distributor since 1989. I've created a lifestyle that I could have only dreamed of having. I feel the best that I've ever felt and I've helped thousands of people to do the same. I've travelled the world and made hundreds of friends. I've grown as a person and I had complete freedom while doing all of it. Sound like fun? Well, now is the best time for you to do it too.

An Absolute Gold Mine for Direct Sellers

According to the Global Wellness Institute, wellness is the new trillion dollar industry. That's trillion with a "t." And that's perfect for us because we're dedicated to improving the wellbeing of people around the world. In fact, that's our mission: Nourish Our World. As for the future of wellness? It couldn't be brighter.

Survey Says

The Direct Selling Association stats from 2016 show that the fastest-growing segment of the industry is wellness and that growth is projected to continue. In 2016, that number climbed to 12.41 billion dollars! But why is that? Courtney Roush of Direct Selling News had this to say:

"Among all direct selling companies, the wellness sector has been capturing the highest volume of product sales. This growth is driven largely by the obesity epidemic, with nearly one-third of the world's population obese or overweight."

One might be tempted to say that as people get bigger, the need for Reliv gets bigger. Or as I've said for the past 28 years: We need to move more, eat smarter and take our Reliv every day.

The reason for all of this is simple: people of all ages want to live longer and healthier lives, and more and more folks are turning to direct selling companies for help. Furthermore, new mobile tools, technology and social media are making it easier for networkers to connect with customers and potential business partners. You have more options today than ever before to reach out to your prospects! This makes it so much easier to grow your business.

Simply put, hundreds of people are joining Reliv each month in order to make positive changes to their lifestyle, and to take advantage of the tools that are making it easier for entrepreneurs to connect, train, and retain people like never before. You might say it's the perfect Reliv storm.

Indeed, much has changed since I started my business years ago, and I couldn't be happier about it. Today, Distributors have their own websites and social media pages and they use emails, text messaging, smartphones, laptops, and tablets for ordering products, showing videos, listening to podcasts, and reaching out to people on their many networks. It's plain to see how the tools of the modern world play right into the hands of those who want to build a worldwide distribution network. And at Reliv we won't only embrace the changes sweeping through our industry, but we will lead the way.

Consider joining us as we lead the world towards better wellbeing!

"We need to move more, eat smarter and take our Reliv every day."

why fitness friends are so important

By Reliv Product Marketing Specialist Tina Van Horn

I prefer to exercise in the morning. It's the time of day when my energy is the best and also the only time of day that I can consistently make time to work out. So you might assume that I leap out of bed and grab my running shoes when the alarm goes off at 4:30 a.m., right? Well, not exactly.

There is generally some grumbling as I reach for the snooze button and my brain starts to process why I am getting up so early. At this point, I'm trying to figure out how I can squeeze in a workout later and secretly hoping for a text from Sara, my workout partner, to let me know that she can't meet this morning to run. I am completely deceiving myself — I don't have time later and Sara NEVER cancels. To be honest, I never cancel either. That's the beauty of having a workout partner — motivation and accountability.

Meeting My Fitness Pal

Sara and I met 12 years ago at a local 5K race. We didn't really know each other then, but over the next few years we bumped into each other at races and running (literally) around town. About seven years ago, we started running together. We have run thousands of miles together and regularly workout three to four times per week. Not only is she my workout pal, but she is now a very close friend. And it was fitness that originally brought us together.

The Power of a Support System

Various research studies have proven what we already know — that social support is a powerful motivator when it comes to establishing a regular exercise routine and achieving fitness goals. Statistics suggest that when you exercise with a partner or group, you not only work harder and longer, but you also burn more calories per session. A study conducted at Indiana University proved that working out as a pair significantly decreased the dropout rate versus those who joined a gym together, but exercised separately.

Most health and fitness professionals validate the importance of a support system when it comes to creating long-term health and fitness success. So, unless you have a highly motivated, extremely introverted personality, you will definitely see better results when you establish a network of people who have common health goals and interests.

Health and fitness is definitely a team activity. Your fitness teammate(s) is out there. Chances are, they are looking for you too.

So go ahead and lace up your trainers and make some new friends. After all, that's what we do here at Reliv — we make new friends and enjoy a healthy lifestyle with nutritional products!

the Reliv Kalogris Foundation

UPDATE

by Scott Montgomery, Chairman of the Reliv Kalogris Foundation

2017 saw the Reliv Kalogris Foundation continue to build their donor base and bring more awareness to the cause. We also welcomed Annie Campbell as the Foundation's new Director!

I am honoured to be a part of the team to help "Nourish Our World." The RKF is an honest organisation with 97% of all donations raised going straight to the cause. I just returned from my first trip to Haiti and I was amazed by what the RKF is doing and that just $5 a day feeds a child for an entire month.

— Annie Campbell, RKF Director

The Philippines is one of our largest programmes with 60 Site Coordinators consisting of church pastors, parent volunteers, teachers, classroom advisers, and principals. This dedicated group of individuals distribute product to hundreds of feeding sites placed in squatter communities, church halls, barangay (health) centres, or schools. The Site Coordinators identify children in their community who are malnourished and/or suffering from other conditions. Sometimes parents in dire need bring their sick and malnourished children to a Site Coordinator for consideration into the programme. All of this is made possible by the Area Coordinators Pastor George and Blessie Padilla who work directly with the RKF on receiving shipments and ensuring the product is used and distributed properly.

Seaside village outside of Cavite City, Philippines, where families live on stilts because of unpredictable rising waters which contribute to harsh living conditions.

Welfareville, Philippines. Marketing Coordinator Joan Colaneri distributing morning shakes.

Happy Because of the Foundation
Kimberly was once a Reliv kid and is now a volunteer at the very clinic that introduced her to our programme. She helps others visiting the MCC (Medical Check for Children) to get the proper medical help and nutrition they need to survive. Kimberly is a true inspiration to the RKF and is one of many children in our programme who grows up and gives back.

The RKF Staff recently visited the feeding programmes in the Philippines and met with the Site Coordinators. One particular visit was to the MCC (Medical Check for Children), a medical mission visiting from the Netherlands. Their clinic consists of seeing 300+ children, processing their weight, height, blood testing, full physical review, and prescribing medications. Any child diagnosed as malnourished becomes part of the RKF feeding programme and starts receiving Reliv Now for Kids.

MCC (Medical Check for Children)
Most children are put on a 90-120 day programme to get back on their feet. Unfortunately, most of the children slide back into malnutrition because they do not have adequate nutrition at home. In cases such as these, the children are retained in the programme using the product for supplementation.

Exercise Your Giving Muscles

We need your help to keep programmes such as this going and to deliver product into the hands of more kids around the world.

Make a difference by making a donation today!

To learn more, visit our website relivkalogrisfoundation.org and for up-to-date stories about the children in our programmes, follow us on Facebook: www.facebook.com/relivkalogrisfoundation.

I'm happy that I can help to give the children in the RKF some hope for the future. Individually we can't change the world but collectively we can make a difference!

champagne

The Champagne Moments promotion strives to recognise Distributors who go the extra mile to build their Reliv business and support and encourage those around them.

Here's the reactions of our Champagne Moment winners so far!

moments

The Champagne Moment was a beautiful surprise for us! We earned it because we were simply helping our group to grow by programming a special training. When the venue wasn't open as we were told it would be, we carried out the training outside on the chilly terrace. It was an experience of a lifetime but the show must go on!

Our Champagne Moment was an experience of a lifetime too. We were treated to a lovely dinner on the top of the Montparnasse Tower in Paris. We would never think of such a treat for ourselves but Reliv did. It feels great to be recognised for doing the daily things that grow our business!

SHELBY & DAN HILL

We went to Bordeaux to help someone in our team, Gregory Dubois, and his group with their presentations but unfortunately Gregory couldn't attend the presentations. So we decided to present the meetings around Langon and Bordeaux just as Gregory had planned whilst being accompanied by Reliv Europe Chairman, Eric Vill. We didn't do anything special, just the everyday work that an upline does, and that is why we were so surprised to be rewarded with this prize!

We shared our Champagne Moment with our team in Bordeaux. There is nothing better than coming together to get to know each other better and building a team spirit.

We have been spoiled and are encouraged by the bright future that Reliv offers.

VINCENT & IRENE MANCEBO

Being rewarded with a Champagne Moment was a very pleasant surprise. It was a real shock to learn that we had earned this reward while on our first Reliv trip – the Millionaires' Weekend. This trip was a special time for us and it was very inspirational being amongst so many top Distributors. Being recognised as making progress both personally and in the business shows us that Reliv has a real care and heart for ordinary people to advance in this brilliant business.

We loved going to the Merchant Hotel in Belfast for our Champagne Moment – it was really special. Thank you Reliv, we love this business!

HELEN & PAUL MURDOCK

advancements

Anne Soubrier Senior Director

I am very happy to have progressed to this level because I truly believe in these products and in the business. Every day there are new stories of people whose daily lives have been improved and that's very rewarding.

I achieved this level thanks to my upline who was very supportive, even though it was a real challenge, and I also helped my downline. Teamwork is the key and it leaves us with wonderful memories!

Advancing to Senior Director has encouraged me to continue to progress to the next level. But apart from that, it's about helping people and giving them the financial freedom that they want. I love this job and I look forward to devoting myself to it full-time. If the work is simple then it must be constant and the Reliv System is there to help us move forward.

David & Rachael Doey Senior Directors

Becoming Senior Directors feels absolutely brilliant. It has fuelled our passion for Reliv and to help even more people. We are working hard but have had so much fun at the same time!

If you follow the Reliv System, you will be successful. If we have a new person interested in either the products, business or both, we invite them onto a 3-way-call with someone in our network. We strive to do excellent follow-up and make sure each new person is exposed to as many stories as possible. We consistently attend every Tuesday and Saturday meeting and invite new people onto the weekly European and international calls. We always make ourselves available for our organisation and plan special events every three months.

Our next goal is to become Master Directors and for David to also be full-time with Reliv. We have two sets of meetings running in different areas and would like to get a third system running too. We want to grow our business across Europe and internationally. Our ultimate goal is to become Ambassadors and Presidential Directors!

We have learned to be teachable, consistent and committed but most of all, HAVE FUN!

Lesley McBride Senior Director

It feels wonderful to have become a Senior Director! It's so exciting to watch my life changing as a result of helping others and I absolutely love what I am doing.

I have a personal goal of speaking to five new people a week. When I start a conversation with someone and listen to their needs – it's amazing how many people are looking for a better lifestyle. I share with them that I have something they are going to want to hear about, exchange numbers and phone them the next day to arrange an appointment.

Everyone who knows me knows I love to talk to and help others. My goal is to leave a positive impact on people. By helping others, I look forward to a personal income that will grant me financial independence, the ability to help my kids through university and to spend my time travelling.

If someone says no when you talk to them about Reliv, don't take it personally. Keep talking to others until you find the people who are open to what you have to say. Never give up!

Nathalie De Pontac
Key Director

Sabine Danel

Tatiana Soubrier

Véronique De Chenierilles
Key Director

It is very satisfying and a personal victory to have reached this level because it means that my network is growing. I am also very happy to have earned a trip to London with my husband through my advancement!

I feel that with this new title I am being rewarded for the support I give to both my clients and team of Distributors. I think that the enthusiasm I have had for Reliv since the beginning has enabled me to make so much progress over the past four years. Sharing Reliv with those around me has enabled me to build an amazing team of Distributors. There is an incredible positive energy spreading!

I am delighted to have advanced as it is the result of my team's development and that is what I like the most; helping people to find solutions and make choices that are right for them.

It feels wonderful to have become a Key Director! I am especially pleased as that was my goal for 2017. To reach this level, my key word was "consistency." For four years I have been making my own way through the business at my own pace, step-by-step, motivated and supported by my upline along the way. Above all, I understood the importance of talking about the business opportunity and building a team.

To become a Key Director, I listened to my upline and worked as much as I could whilst taking into account my family and my own daily constraints. The French Ambassadors have really helped me with my personal development. I ask them a lot of questions and I know that their advice is solid.

In order to succeed in this job, I think that first and foremost, you need to listen to the person you are talking to. This enables you to understand the person's needs. I think that kindness is also important. This job requires organisation, the ability to be responsive and of course, professionalism.

I am lucky enough to speak several languages and to have lived and worked in different countries. This means that I can develop my Reliv business throughout Europe and beyond. I hope that, by sharing this opportunity with Reliv and by being committed to the business, I can help more people around the world improve their quality of life. I am building financial independence which will bring freedom of choice for my family.

I am hoping to carry on in the same way and to continue making progress. I would like to be able to spend more time doing this job; to help more people, introduce more people to the business, help my downline, train more Distributors and therefore build a good, solid team.

I will continue to help my team, work consistently to develop my network and sponsor abroad! I move around a lot with my husband's job but I know that I can take my Reliv business wherever I go and carry on working in the same way. That is a great advantage for me.

I gained the confidence I needed to throw myself into the business with the help of my team – even I am surprised at how far I've come! I have started building a network in countries outside of France, such as Italy, and I am really excited at this prospect. What's next? I don't know...that's the adventure!

With Reliv we have all that we need to succeed and to help others succeed: products that really make a difference and an amazing business opportunity! Share, listen, help and let yourself be helped. Always smile and show that it is possible to build a life in a different way!

To advance, you need to give yourself realistic goals and always use the Reliv System and tools in place. Share stories as they are the most powerful tool at your disposal. Never be discouraged and never judge!

Joyful: Having Reliv in my life has given me more joy. I have the opportunity to meet new people and I generally feel more relaxed in myself. Reliv has helped me to survive when my business was starting to experience a downturn. I'm in a good position again now!

Quality of Life: Building a Reliv business is something that my partner and I can do together and we can spend more time with each other. The income I get with Reliv will add to my pension and ensure that I have a good quality of life after retirement.

Taking Centre Stage: When I was on stage for the first few times at our events, I was still a bit unsure about how I would manage. Talking on stage was a big challenge for me because I'm a shy person. But as each week went by, I realised how secure I started to feel on stage. After my third appearance on stage, I went home and thought, "I would like to do this forever – even for the rest of my life!"

Achieving Goals: I feel like my personality has really changed and it is amazing what you can achieve in life thanks to Reliv. My goal is to be able to give up my current job as an electrician in a factory and turn Reliv into my full-time job!
